our approach

Brand Philosophy

Alumni Club follows a more bespoke and experiential approach towards networking by focusing on deeper and smarter business relationships that transcends personal and professional utility. We focus on curating a like-minded network based on intellectual and cultural equality, supported by an ecosystem of tailored benefits.

Community Building

We curate together bespoke invite-only events in the form of unique social experiences, professional speaker series and general mixers in order to create value for our community. Events are organised both online and offline, in line with the member's value-creation strategy.
