MRA THITSA

Khine Zar Thwe, known as Skylar, is a strategic business leader and entrepreneur with over seven years of experience driving growth, partnerships, and operations across Southeast Asia. He is the ex-VP at Vero ASEAN and ROVER, where he oversaw multi-market operations, drove commercial innovations, and advised brands on scaling and optimizing agency units. He also served as Country Manager of Vero Myanmar, leading teams and client operations during highly dynamic times.

An entrepreneur at heart, Skylar founded MMTutors, an education platform, and led his own business operations in Myanmar. His career reflects a consistent ability to connect strategic vision with execution, whether managing P&L responsibilities, developing proprietary tools in analytics and influencer marketing, or guiding cross-functional teams. He brings a strong track record in building partnerships, leading high-performing teams, and aligning stakeholders to deliver sustainable growth in fast-changing markets.
