- Panel Discussions & Keynote Speaker Series

Why Sponsor State of Young Philadelphia?

- Engage with Emerging Leaders: Connect directly with Philadelphia's next generation of civic and business leaders.
- Brand Visibility: Enhance your organization's presence within the community through event promotions and materials.
- Community Impact: Demonstrate your commitment to civic engagement and the betterment of Philadelphia.
- Every contribution helps young Philadelphians step into their power, connect across neighborhoods, and organize for lasting change.

Over the past two and a half decades, YIP has hosted hundreds of events, engaged thousands of residents, and partnered with elected officials, nonprofits, and grassroots groups to drive collective action.

YIP is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization dedicated to increasing civic engagement among Philadelphians aged 18–35. Since its founding in 2000, YIP has served as a bridge between emerging leaders and the city's political, professional, and community landscape. YIP helps young people build meaningful connections, advocate for policy change, and shape the future of Philadelphia.
