Family Impact Lab

November 26, 2026 | 2:00 PM | Impact Summit, Expo City

We are pleased to invite you to the Family Impact Lab, a closed-door working session bringing together key government, private-sector, academic, and ecosystem stakeholders to explore how the private sector can better enable families to participate in the UAE economy across different life stages and circumstances.

The Lab will examine current workplace policies, programmes, and practices, identify gaps and barriers facing different family groups, and explore opportunities to better align private-sector action with government priorities to strengthen family wellbeing, economic resilience, and long-term national prosperity.

Key Discussion Areas

- Working Families and Career Progression for Parents
- Youth Readiness for the Future Economy
- The Silver Economy and the 60+ Generation
- Inclusive Employment for People of Determination and Their Families
- Emirati Participation and Progression in the Private Sector
- Supporting Expatriate Families in the Workforce

Session Format

A closed-door, facilitated dialogue combining plenary discussion and curated roundtables, designed to encourage candid exchange, practical problem-solving, and commitment to clear next-step actions.
